AS PER USUAL

BY DAMI LEE

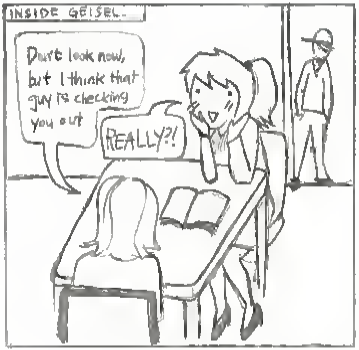
Welcome to the special 100th episode of
As Per Usual!!

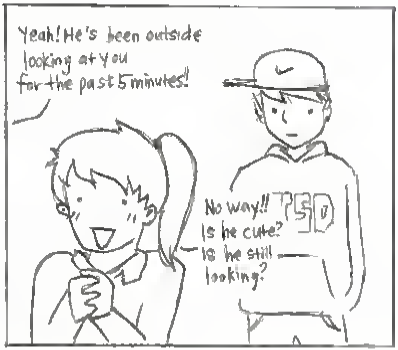
I'll be answering your questions, so let's get to it!

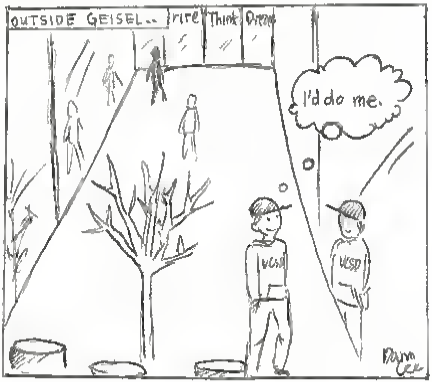
Just Random

What made you start drawing/ making comics? How long has it been since you started? And also, is there any tips to draw better :v

I've always loved doodling but I started drawing comics for my college newspaper in Sophomore year. This is the first one I ever drew, in 2009:







(Geisel was the name of our school library.)

My first comics were just drawn with a ballpoint pen and scanned. In 2010 I got a Wacom Bamboo tablet that I still use and love to this day! It's ancient but it works for me. If you're a beginner looking to get into digital art, I recommend the smaller Wacom tablets like the Intuos!

What drawing system do you use? Also, where should I send fan art?

I use Manga Studio S, which I think is easier to draw in than Photoshop. Send e-mails/fan art/memes to dami@asperusualcomics.com!
